

I feel since satellite radio is not available to the general public unless subscribed, and just like cable TV, should be allowed to provide traffic and weather. There is no reason why FCC should stop this service. It is paid for by the subscriber and provides important information.